Introduction

The governors and staff at Lady Lumley's School believe that high quality teaching and learning is enhanced by a clear and consistent behaviour and rewards policy, which sets out the high expectations for all members of the school community. The policy will enable all students to behave in line with the Lady Lumley's Vision of 'Being our best' and empower students to commit to our core values of Learning, Leading, Ambition and Progress.

The policy promotes a happy, safe learning community, where there are positive relationships between staff and students together with a consistent rewards system and celebration of success, progress, and positive attitudes. All staff within the school have a key role to play in ensuring the success of the policy, through consistent application, and through demonstrating the high standards expected through daily interactions with students and with each other. Behaviour for Learning is the responsibility of all members of the school community. It is the responsibility of the staff to:

- develop an achievement culture through regular praise/rewards.
- regularly reinforce classroom and around-school expectations, (Staff should not assume that students automatically know all the behavioural expectations).
- be prepared to listen to students.
- behave in a calm, dignified yet assertive, manner.
- focus on the behaviour not the person.
- rehearse strategies for dealing with low level disruption so that we become skilled in deescalating conflict.
- avoid stereotyped or pre-conceived judgements about students.
- support students to positively change behaviours.
- celebrate cultural diversity within our community.

Lady Lumley's School aims to create an environment in which there is no low-level disruption in lessons and conduct around the school is outstanding. Students are encouraged to take responsibility for their own behaviour and actions and become increasingly independent within the school setting. Where students do not meet the high standards set out in the behaviour policy, there is a clear and consistent approach to consequences that has been explained to all stakeholders.

The school is very aware that some students have social, emotional, and mental health and wellbeing issues (SEMH&W). This policy aims to support these students by setting clear consistent rules for students. However, it is also possible for reasonable adjustments to be made for students where their expression of SEMH&W indicates additional support strategies are required. These students will be identified to staff and the strategies employed to support these students will be clearly communicated and supported through CPD; this may include support plans, notes on Bromcom, Risk Assessments or Education and Health Care Plans (EHCPs).

The Positive Learning Experience

First and foremost, staff at Lady Lumley's School will foster a culture in which learning, leading, ambition and progress are celebrated, and where excellent relationships between all members of the community are the driving force of a positive learning experience.

Good behaviour and attitudes are enhanced by a challenging, engaging curriculum, supported by high quality lessons that take account of the potential barriers to learning that students may experience.

The following consistent approaches by teachers will contribute to the positive learning culture:

- arrive before the class to meet and greet the class.
- ensure that students know that they will either line up quietly outside the classroom, or enter the classroom quietly, depending on the location of the classroom.
- ensure that uniform is worn correctly.
- make sure students are aware of the learning objectives and success criteria.
- use positive language to promote co-operation and commitment.
- manage the space, monitoring all students' work and behaviour continuously.
- be mobile, not sitting at your desk.
- give feedback regularly and constructively.
- set regular home learning, in accordance with the home learning policy.
- establish and maintain a stimulating classroom environment.
- ensure that students leave the classroom in a quiet and respectful manner.

Staff at Lady Lumley's have a "Fresh Start" philosophy. Once a consequence has been served, staff will welcome the student back to the next lesson, ensuring that a positive approach is taken.

Rewards

The aim of the reward system is to recognise effort, attitude, progress, participation and success at all levels in all areas of school life. It is essential that the use of positives is a feature of every lesson and that they are used equitably across different Year Groups, ability sets, genders and that they are awarded evenly over the course of the academic year. Positives should be awarded regularly enough to encourage effort, attitude, progress, participation and success, yet sparingly enough to preserve their status and respect. All staff have a responsibility to give praise, during lessons and at other times, when they are with students. Regular recognition and praise is important in developing students' confidence and self-esteem. There are many ways to reward students who are succeeding or improving, or behaving in a positive way around the school:

- Using Bromcom to reward positive effort, attitude, progress, participation and success.
- Making constructive remarks about students' work.
- Recognising success of differing kinds in assemblies (particularly Rewards Assemblies) and Tutor time.
- Displaying work in classrooms and corridors.
- Positive phone calls to parents, carers and guardians.
- Sending letters of encouragement and praise to parents, carers and guardians.
- Ensuring that the Headteacher, Deputy Headteacher, Assistant Headteacher, Key Stage Leaders, Heads of House, Pastoral Officers, and Curriculum Leaders, are actively given opportunities to praise individuals for effort, attitude, progress, participation and success.

Positives should not normally be given for behaviour which merely reflects the school and classroom code of conduct e.g., not shouting out or bringing the right equipment or ingredients. Pupils experiencing these difficulties will be supported through our pastoral structure. Staff at Lady Lumley's School have high expectations and students will be rewarded for meeting these expectations.

Positive Behaviour for Learning: Expectations and Consequences

From time to time, young people will not behave within the expectations set out in the school rules. Governors and staff at Lady Lumley's School, understand that students sometimes make mistakes, and a strong pastoral system is in place to help students become more responsible. A consistent, whole-school approach to managing poor behaviour, in which there is clarity around consequences, is essential.

Whilst consistency is important, if students keep repeating the same behaviours and receiving the same consequences, staff should reflect on what changes could be made to make repeated poor behaviour less likely. The emphasis of this policy is on encouraging and developing positive behaviour, not punishing poor behaviour.

The Rules and Consequences Poster clarifies expectations around conduct, but the school expectations are summarised in the Expectations Matrix (Appendix I)

The high expectations of behaviour and conduct will be explicitly taught, discussed regularly with students in assemblies and tutor time and will be clearly displayed around the school.

Consistency will be achieved by: -

- all staff sharing a positive ethos to managing behaviour.
- all staff embracing and adopting the advice and the principles of this policy.
- all staff following the guidance in the Positive Behaviour for Learning Consequence Charts (In-Class and Around School)
- all staff regularly reminding students of the school's high expectations

See APPENDIX I for the Rules and Consequences Poster.

If these rules are broken the consequence will be recorded on Bromcom or in the planner as detailed in Appendix B.

The Positive Behaviour for Learning Consequences

Students need to understand the minimum consequence that will result from not following the Positive Behaviour for Learning Policy and should also be aware of the minimum consequence for their behaviour.

The Positive Behaviour for Learning Policy has very high expectations for student conduct in lessons. Low-level disruption takes time away from the learning for everyone, and expectations for conduct in lessons, including being fully engaged in all work set, will regularly be reinforced through assemblies, tutoring and by classroom teachers.

The In-Class Consequence Process

The approach to poor behaviour in lessons is based around a simple stepped approach.

When students enter the classroom, uniform will be checked on arrival and the expectation is that students have an entry task ‘the drill’ which allows them to settle down quickly and quietly to their work. In most cases, the teacher should use whole class behaviour management techniques to deal with any unsettled behaviour as students are entering the room.

1.Once the students are settled, any students who break the clearly defined classroom rules, should receive a CONSEQUENCE1, along with the reason for the C1,

2.If the student continues to break the rules, a CONSEQUENCE 2 (“C2”) should be given, again with a reason for the consequence.

3.If the student continues to break the rules, a CONSEQUENCE 3 (“C3”) should be given, again with a reason for the consequence. A NEGATIVE POINT will be recorded on Bromcom. The students then need to move seats to a different location.

4.If the student needs a further CONSEQUENCE (“C4”), the member of staff will remove the student to a C4 room on the school rota. A NEGATIVE POINT will also be recorded on Bromcom. A breaktime detention should also be added.

5.For a refusal to go to the C4 room (or for a removal for a serious one-off incident) staff should record a brief written statement on Bromcom. The member of staff will alert SLT via the Alert Button on Bromcom, and the student will be moved to the REFLECTION ROOM. This means the student moves to a C5. If a serious one-off incident occurs or an incident that may result in an suspension, the statement should be recorded on CPOMs.

The CONSEQUENCE CHART can be seen in APPENDIX H , which details the further consequences within the system following C4 REMOVAL.

The Role of the Curriculum Leader in the Positive Behaviour Policy

Class teachers must keep their curriculum leader informed if a student receives a C3 in their lesson and the Curriculum Leader should monitor C4s on Bromcom.

If this behaviour becomes repeated over a period of time, the class teacher should raise this with their curriculum leader. A discussion between the class teacher and the curriculum leader should take place, followed by the curriculum leader having a discussion with the student about the repeated poor behaviour and the consequences if the behaviour does not change.

The class teacher should ring home and discuss the concerns and the consequences if there is no improvement. A summary of all discussions and of the call home should be logged on CPOMS, tagging the Pastoral Officer and the Key Stage Leader.

If the student’s behaviour does not improve, the following consequences will be applied:

Positive Behaviour for Learning Policy			Lady Lumley's School	Page 6 of 33
Date: 02/07/24	Version 1.3	Review Date: July 25

The student will be removed from the subject lessons for between 1 and 2 lessons (depending on how often the class teacher sees the student).

The curriculum leader will arrange for the student to work in the back of a sixth form lesson within the department. If this is not possible, the curriculum leader should arrange for the student to work in the back of a different sixth form lesson (different subject).

The student will have access to the work set but will have some time out of the lesson to reflect on their behaviour and its impact. Work will be provided by the class teacher.

If the lesson is Period 4 and there are no other classes available then the Reflection Room may be used for the extraction.

Following the subject extraction and before the student returns to the lesson, the class teacher and the curriculum leader will meet with the student to discuss a fresh start and a positive change in behaviour.

At this time the Curriculum Leader will liaise with the Class teacher to break the cycle of repeated behaviour. This may include Student Voice, observation of the student in a class where they are successful, parent voice and tutor/Pastoral Officer involvement.

The student returns to the lesson with a fresh start.

If the student's behaviour continues to be poor and they receive repeated C3's again over a period of time, the process will begin again.

Increased sanctions such as issuing C4 instead of C3 could be used to increase the level of consequences for the repeated behaviour.

All discussions and consequences from a C4 should be logged on CPOMS, therefore informing the Pastoral Officer and Key Stage Leader. If there are concerns from multiple subjects, the Pastoral Officer or Key Stage Leader may become involved.

NB – Where the class teacher is the Curriculum Leader, they will liaise with another Curriculum Leader who will co-ordinate the extraction.

Serious Class Incidents

If there is a serious incident in class, the member of staff may press the Bromcom Button immediately for On Call support. On Call is staffed by the Senior Leadership Team on a rota with a Pastoral Officer supporting each lesson. Serious Class Incidents include:

- Swearing at a member of staff.
- Threatening or abusive behaviour to staff or other students.
- Outbursts of aggressive behaviour, such as punching a wall.
- A student leaving class without permission.
- Defiance or refusal to following instructions.

Working with Parents, Carers and guardians (PCG)

Managing behaviour at Lady Lumley's School is more likely to be effective if we work with parents, carers and guardians as genuine partners in the education process. Parents, carers and guardians need to be assured that the school's way of managing behaviour is well thought out, fair and effective. It is important to have clear procedures for contact between parents and school staff through:

- Announcements via My Child at School App
- Reports that are available to parents on My Child at School App
- Letters home
- Newsletter
- The school website
- Parents, carers and guardian's consultation evenings
- Text messages and email
- Engaging the services of the Pastoral Team.
- Parent information evenings.

The first point of contact for parents, carers and guardians is the Pastoral Officer.

One important element of working with parent, carer or guardians is the role of the Pastoral Officers. After Tutors, this team is often the next point of contact, for parents, carers, or guardians.

It is important that parents, carers and guardians understand that violence, threatening behaviour or abuse by pupils or parents towards the school's staff either in person or online will not be tolerated. If a parent, carer or guardian does not conduct himself/herself properly, the school may ban them from the school premises and, if the parent continues to cause disturbance, he or she may be liable to prosecution.

Detentions

Detentions are an essential part of the Positive Behaviour for Learning Policy. Detentions can take place at Break or Lunchtimes.

Class Teacher Detentions

Class teacher detentions may be given at the following times:

- during morning break

Break and lunchtime Detentions

- Class Teachers/Subject Leaders can issue break detention as a result of a C4. These detentions will be for 15 minutes to allow the student to access toilets. Break and lunchtime detentions can be given for the following reasons:
 - C4
 - Incomplete Home Learning (if not submitted after opportunity to complete and resubmit)
- Class teachers should not issue 'whole class' detentions, as it will always be the case that some students are blameless and undeserving of a sanction.
- Failure to attend the break detention will trigger a lunch time detention.

- If a student receives a C5 they will complete a whole day in the reflection room the following day including both break and lunch time.

Reasonable Adjustments

The Positive Behaviour for Learning Policy takes careful account of the SEN Code of Practice and the Equality Act 2010 along with the Disability Equality Duty in the Disability Discrimination Act 2005, and Special Educational Needs and Disability Act 2001.

Whilst there will always be a consistent approach to rewards and consequences within the policy, it is important that reasonable adjustments are put in place for students with specific needs that may affect conduct around the school.

In most cases any reasonable adjustment will be made around the nature of the consequence; in other words, the consequence will in the vast majority of cases be put in place in line with the policy, but the manner in which the consequence is carried out may be reasonably adjusted.

Other reasonable adjustments may be put in place by the Pastoral or SEND Team. These adjustments will always be detailed in a written Pastoral Behaviour Plan and shared with all staff.

Approaches to Child on Child Abuse and Discriminatory Language and Behaviour (Please see the Child on Child Abuse Policy and Anti-Bullying Policy for full information.)

The school ethos supports the values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance for those with different faiths and beliefs. Students are educated in these areas throughout the curriculum.

Bullying of any form is not accepted, and any incidents of bullying brought to the attention of school staff will be fully investigated. As a minimum, a C4 will be put in place for students found to have been responsible for bullying.

Discriminatory language of any kind is not accepted at Lady Lumley's School, and any use of discriminatory language and any form of discriminatory behaviour, however minor, will receive at least a C4. The incident should also be recorded on Bromcom.

The school takes very seriously any use of social media to intimidate, harass or bully any member of the Lady Lumley's community. Inappropriate usage of social media will be dealt with in line with the school behaviour policy, even if it takes place outside of school hours.

Very Serious Incidents

The following have been identified as requiring an instant lengthy Fixed Term Suspension and consideration of Permanent Exclusion:

Setting off the Fire Alarm

Students who deliberately set off the fire alarm in school will receive a significant fixed term suspension, and the governors will consider whether permanent exclusion is the appropriate consequence.

Illegal Substances, including drugs

(Please see the Drugs Policy for full information)

The school does not permit the misuse of drugs nor the use or presence of unauthorised drugs on site or associated with any activity, anywhere, for which the school is responsible, including on journeys to and from school.

Whilst the school acknowledges the advice from the DFE that drug-related incidents should not automatically lead to suspension, the governing body believes that clear consequences form part of the school's response.

Where illegal drugs are used or supplied it is likely that a significant fixed term suspension will be put in place, and where circumstances are particularly serious, permanent exclusion will be considered. A second similar drug-related offence is likely to invoke Permanent Exclusion.

Possession or use of alcohol on site will incur at least a C5.

Pre-meditated Assault and refusal to follow staff instructions.

If a student assaults another member of the school community, and investigation shows this to be premeditated, it is likely that a significant fixed term suspension will be put in place, and where circumstances are particularly serious, permanent exclusion will be considered. If students are involved in a fight, and refuse to stop when asked by staff, the same consequences will be considered.

Possession of a weapon

If a student brings a weapon into school (including knives), it will incur at least a C6.

Threats/Assaults to adults in school

If a student threatens or assaults an adult in school, it will incur at least a C6

External Agencies

At Lady Lumley's School we value the support and guidance that external agencies can provide to support our school community e.g. Police, Children and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHs), Children's and Family Services (CFS), Early Help etc. We will actively signpost and refer students and families to these External Agencies to secure support and will liaise closely with them where appropriate to support the students.

Legacy

Addendum to School Behaviour Policy, in light of coronavirus situation

Staff will use the reward system in the usual way to reward students for their positive contributions to school life.

It is very important that students adhere to the additional rules, put in place due to the current situation. This will help keep everybody in the school community safe:

- Arriving to and leaving school at the expected times and following the required route into school that is in place when applicable*
- Sticking to the zones, toilets and break areas assigned to your learning bubble, and following one-way systems when applicable.*
- Following all social distancing rules that are in place.*

- Following all requirements around hygiene: handwashing and sanitising as instructed by school staff for instance.
- Following expectations about sneezing, coughing, tissues, and disposal ('catch it, bin it, kill it') and avoiding touching your mouth, nose and eyes with hands.
- Not sharing any of your personal equipment with any other student. Only sharing school equipment where you have been given permission to do so by a staff member.
- Queueing sensibly whenever necessary, for example to enter a classroom, or wash hands or use toilet facilities, maintaining the social distancing rules as directed.
- Following all instructions around mixing with other students before and after school.
- As always, following all instructions from staff first time, every time.

Staff will use the behaviour policy in the following way:

- For minor breaches of the rules above the normal system will be used- warning, followed by C1, C2 and C3. A C3 will lead to removal from the lesson.
- If staff consider that a student's behaviour is at risk of seriously endangering the safety of other students or staff, parents, carers and guardians will be asked to come into school to collect the student and a fixed term suspension will be put in place.
- (Consequences will be given for low level disruption and other infringements not related to Covid19 in the usual way.)

Students who are removed from lessons will be isolated from their peers for at least the rest of the lesson.

Students who persistently disrupt the class will be isolated for a longer period of time, in line with the school policy.

After school detentions will be put in place for any students who persistently disrupt their lessons.

Please note, students who make a joke out of the coronavirus situation - pretending to cough for example, will receive a consequence (minimum C4). This kind of behaviour will not be tolerated.

Unfortunately, we have seen nationally a small number of cases of people coughing or spitting at other people. Whilst we would not expect this type of behaviour from any Lady Lumley's Student, we do need to emphasise that any behaviour of this type will be dealt with in the strictest possible way, including possible permanent exclusion from school.

All students will be expected to wear their full school uniform, and all the usual uniform rules will apply. If parents, carers, and guardians are finding it difficult to find any items of uniform, they should contact the school as soon as possible.

Policy Review

The School will conduct a full review of the policy with the governing body on an annual basis.

The Positive Behaviour for Learning policy will be reviewed at least Termly and amended where appropriate in response to Student, Staff and Parent Voice.

Consequence 5 (C5)	If the student persists in an unsatisfactory manner or refuses to attend the C4 REMOVAL, the student will be placed in REFLECTION. The Reflection Room is an extremely serious consequence. Reflection will be for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A whole day in the reflection room including a break and lunchtime. • Anything less than full cooperation in following the rules and high expectations demanded in the Reflection Room will result in extra lessons to be served. The students' parents / carers / guardians may be asked to accompany their child to school to discuss the situation. • Following unacceptable behaviour in the room, the student will be given a final warning. If the unacceptable behaviour continues, then the consequence move to C6. 	REFLECTION ROOM Students will be placed in the Reflection Room and lose the privilege of going out at break and lunch times. Students can purchase lunch from a limited menu in the Reflection Room or eat their own packed lunch. Toilets are available adjacent to the Reflection Room	Parents, carers or guardians will be informed daily if their child has been in Reflection by the Reflection staff. Consequence 6 (C6)	INTERNAL SUSPENSION This will be decided by the head teacher. A meeting will be held at some point during the C6 between parents, student, pastoral and SLT link. A student cannot return to lessons until this meeting has taken place. 	The internal suspension will take place from 8.50am to 3.05 pm and with the same expectations and rules as the Reflection Room.
Consequence 7 (C7)	. FIXED TERM SUSPENSION (FTS) Lady Lumley's School is a fully inclusive school, and we will try everything possible to avoid Fixed Term Suspensions. There are, however, some situations that will require this action, these are outlined below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • specific serious incident • constant refusal to conform to school rules (e.g.: refusal to complete Reflection or Internal Suspension) Depending upon a student's suspension history and nature of the offence the FTS pattern is incremental for repeat offenders: 1 day, 2 day, 3 day, 4 day and 5 day.	FIXED TERM SUSPENSIONS and SUSPENSION ROOM REINTEGRATION Students will be required to stay at home for the day and complete the work provided. On returning from the FTS students may be required to undertake an Internal Suspension.	FTS must be authorised by the Headteacher or deputising Senior Leader in the Headteacher's absence. The Reflection Staff will organise relevant, appropriate ability work for the student on the first day of suspension, with support from the Subject Teacher/Leaders. Potential investigation of alternative provision for repeat offenders. Letter home to notify Ps/Cs or Gs of the FTS FTS recorded on CPOMs. Pastoral support strategies will also be constructed and implemented at this stage.
Consequence 8 (C8)	GOVERNORS INTERVENTION PANEL (GIP) At the discretion of the Headteacher, in conjunction with the Deputy Headteacher and Assistant Headteacher, a student and their Ps, Cs or Gs will be required to attend the School Governors Intervention Panel (GIP) for a pre-permanent exclusion meeting. Any student reaching 15 days of suspension in a term, will be required to attend the GIP. Please note, that where appropriate, students with fewer days suspensions may be asked to attend. Failure to comply with the GIP will result in the student potentially facing PERMANENT EXCLUSION or other alternative provision.	GOVERNORS INTERVENTION PANEL (GIP) Students will be required to attend the GIP and comply with the strategies and consequence.	Leadership will coordinate with Key Stage Leader and other pastoral staff to prepare documentation for the GIP. Letter home to notify Ps/Cs or Gs of the GIP. Minutes of the meeting will be saved on file.
Consequence 9 (C9)	Lady Lumley's School is a fully inclusive school and aims to avoid the permanent exclusion of students. There are, however, certain extremely serious incidents that warrant this ultimate consequence. Students and parents are notified of these offences and students are regularly reminded in assembly. Similarly, the Ps/Cs or Gs of students who have gone through the pattern of suspensions have also been warned of the consequences of further serious misbehaviour. Provision has been set up to prevent permanent exclusions through the Ryedale Locality Hub; this includes attendance at ROOSE if agreed by the Locality Hub Panel.	PERMANENT EXCLUSION If upheld the student will no longer attend Lady Lumley's School and alternative provision will be provided by the LA	PEX must be authorised by the Headteacher. The Headteacher will coordinate with the Deputy Headteacher and Assistant Headteacher and other Pastoral Staff to prepare documentation for the PEX and any subsequent appeal. Letters home to notify Ps/Cs or Gs of the PEX. Note on the students file on Bromcom and the student removed from the school roll when appeal process has been completed if upheld.

On-line behaviour which directly damages the school's profile and reputation also comes under this category.

Appendix D – Detentions

Detention

What the law allows:

- Teachers have a power to issue detention to pupils (aged under 18).
- Schools must make clear to pupils and parents that they use detention (including detention outside of school hours) as a sanction.
- The times outside normal school hours when detention can be given (the 'permitted day of detention') include:

- a) any school day where the pupil does not have permission to be absent;
 - b) weekends - except the weekend preceding or following the half term break; and
 - c) non-teaching days – usually referred to as ‘training days’, ‘INSET days’ or ‘noncontact days’.
- The headteacher can decide which members of staff can put pupils in detention. For example, they can limit the power to heads of year or heads of department only or they can decide that all members of staff, including support staff, can impose detentions.

Matters schools should consider when imposing detentions.

- Parental consent is not required for detentions.
- As with any disciplinary penalty a member of staff must act reasonably given all the circumstances, when imposing a detention.
- With lunchtime detentions, staff should allow reasonable time for the pupil to eat, drink and use the toilet.

Detentions outside school hours

- School staff should not issue a detention where they know that doing so would compromise a child's safety. When ensuring that a detention outside school hours is reasonable, staff issuing the detention should consider the following points:
 - Whether the detention is likely to put the pupil at risk.
 - Whether the pupil has known caring responsibilities which mean that the detention is unreasonable.
 - Whether the parents ought to be informed of the detention. In many cases it will be necessary to do so, but this will depend on the circumstances. For instance, notice may not be necessary for a short after school detention where the pupil can get home safely; and
 - Whether suitable travel arrangements can be made by the parent for the pupil. It does not matter if making these arrangements is inconvenient for the parent.

Appendix E – Principles of De-escalation

A key principle at Lady Lumley’s School is the use of de-escalation techniques to better support behaviour and ensure an effective and proportionate response. Confrontation only happens when two people disagree. Behaviour can be challenged and modified without escalating the student’s undesirable behaviour. Details of common de-escalation strategies are below they all adopt some of the following principles:

De-escalation techniques	Details
Building relationships	Your relationship will, of course, depend on the class or group, but a balance between a dominant and cooperative style is regarded as the most effective way to improve classroom management
Non – verbal indicator	Walking past and a tap on the desk, or stop and look.

Take-up time	Allows pupils not to lose face. Watching and waiting is, in a way, issuing a challenge. We need to be clear and confident about expressing expectations. Follows an instruction with a pause to allow pupils time to comply. Examples include: 'Could you open your book and start work now, Jane. I'm going to see Bill who needs some help but I'll come back in a minute if you need any.' To a noisy group I need silence in 5...4....3...2....1 Can everyone listen to me please.
Partial agreement	Deflects confrontation with pupils by acknowledging concerns, feelings and actions. Examples include: 'Yes, you may have been talking about your work but I would like you to...' 'Yes, it may not seem fair but . . .' Maybe you will be able to go to the toilet but for now I need 10 minutes more work Maybe he is talking too but I have asked you to stop talking
Choice and consequence rather than confrontation	For example, Jamil, you can either work quietly by yourself or you can come up and sit with me OR James, you can go next door to work with Mr Smith or you can work sensibly with Andy as I've asked. Other examples, Richard, you can do exactly what I've asked or get a C2 as you were warned earlier
Rules and Routines	The start of a new term is a good time to set up routines e.g. Silent Signal, how you come in and out of the classroom, the noise level. Talk about it explicitly and reinforce it regularly.
Tactical ignoring	May be appropriate for attention-seeking behaviour. This could be an example of secondary behaviour, so try to focus on the primary behaviour by concentrating on the pupil and not the behaviour. Ignore the 'target' pupil but praise the nearby pupil. If target pupils change their behaviour, praise them. Examples include: The teacher may say to a nearby pupil "Good I've got your attention.' Repeat this to nearby pupils and the positive behaviour should ripple round to the rest of the non-conforming class.
Positive Language and praise	For example, instead of "will you stop talking,' you say "I'd like everyone listening, please". Instead of "John, stop turning around and distracting Mike," you say "John, I'd like you facing this way and getting on with your work... thanks."
Clarity of expectations and consistency	Needs to be in line with school policy and be implemented clearly and consistently. Examples include: 'Remember the school rule, Phil. If you miss my detention, it is a School one and then if you miss that, it is an after school'
Body language, positioning in the room and eye contact.	You could: use a silent and still approach. Stop what you are doing and remain silent OR Position yourself so you can scan regularly and make eye contact with as many of the class as you can.
Consistent Responses/Common Language	'It is the rule about....that you have broken. I need you to...thank you.' 'I have noticed that...' 'Be that as it may...' 'Thank you for tucking your shirt in.' "Is that Ready, Respectful and Safe?"

Appendix F – Prohibited Items

The following will not be allowed in school:

- chewing gum
- alcohol and/or illegal drugs
- stolen items
- fireworks
- e-cigarettes/Vapes

- high energy drinks and powders
- Fizzy drinks/Energy drinks
- Elastic bands
- tobacco products, cigarette papers, lighters or matches
- knives and weapons including any kind of imitation weapon
- pornographic images and/or images that are considered unsuitable (including electronic images such as those on mobile phones)
- any article that has been or is likely to be used to commit an offence, cause personal injury or damage to property
- solvents and aerosols (including deodorant aerosols)
- fidget spinners / toys

The school expects the highest standards of work and behaviour including being polite and considerate towards others. Students must not store/post images, statements or videos that may be perceived as being detrimental to the school or be regarded as bullying or harassment towards students/staff. This includes the storage/postings on mobile phones and any social networking sites e.g. Facebook/Twitter/Snapchat.

Mobile phones, smart phones, MP3 or MP4 players, tablets, earphones (unless directed to use by teacher) or similar communication devices must be kept out of sight and switched off from when students enter the site in the morning until the end of the day. SIM activated smart watches must not be used in school.

Students failing to comply will have their device confiscated which will only be released to the student at the end of the school day. Repeated incidents will result in confiscation until a parent, carer or guardian can collect. It is vital that students hand in these high value items i.e. phones, MP3 players etc. when they are engaged in PE. This ensures these items are kept securely.

Refusal to hand over items will be treated as defiance in line with the policy.

Please note that illegal drugs found in school will be handed to the police in line with policy; confiscated e-cigarettes and cigarettes will be destroyed. Dangerous items will not be returned, and may be given to the police.

The police will also be informed if students bring a weapon into school.

Appendix G – Screening, Searching and confiscation

This policy is based upon the DfE Guidelines 2014.

Searching

School staff can search a student for any item if the student agrees (1). A search wand may be used when searching a student to identify metal objects that may be hidden.

Headteachers, and staff authorised by them, have a statutory power to search students or their possessions without consent where they have reasonable grounds for suspecting that the student may have a prohibited item. Prohibited items are:

- Knives and weapons
- Alcohol

- Illegal drugs
- Stolen items
- Tobacco, cigarette papers and e-cigarettes/fluid
- Fireworks
- Pornographic images
- Any article that has been or is likely to be used to commit an offence, cause personal injury or damage to property;

Headteachers and authorised staff can also search for any item banned by the school rules which has been identified as an item which may be searched for:

- Drug paraphernalia
- Lighters/matches
- Solvents/Glue
- Aerosols (including deodorant aerosols)
- High energy drinks/Fizzy drinks
- Unauthorised medicines
- Images that are considered unsuitable
- Any kind of imitation weapon

(1) The ability to give consent may be influenced by the child’s age or other factors.

Confiscation

What the law allows

There are two sets of legal provisions which enable school staff to confiscate items from students:

- i) The general power to discipline in Schools enables a member of staff to confiscate, retain or dispose of a student’s property as a punishment, so long as it is reasonable in the circumstances. The law protects them from liability for damage to, or loss of, any confiscated items provided they have acted lawfully², and
- ii) Power to search without consent for “prohibited items”³
- iii) (School staff can seize any prohibited item found as a result of a search. They can also seize any item, however found, which they consider harmful or detrimental to school discipline.

² Section 94 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 ³ Section 550ZA of the Education Act 1996

Lady Lumley’s School’s obligations under the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)

Under article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights students have a right to respect for their private life. In the context of these particular powers, this means that students have the right to expect a reasonable level of personal privacy.

The right under Article 8 is not absolute, it can be interfered with, but any interference with this right by a school (or any public body) must be justified and proportionate. The powers to search in the Education Act 1996 are compatible with Article 8.

At Lady Lumley's School we will exercise these powers lawfully and, therefore, should have no difficulty in demonstrating that we have acted in accordance with Article 8.

Searching with Consent

Schools' Common Law Power to Search

School staff can search students with their consent for any item.

Also note:

- The school is not required to have formal written consent from the student for this sort of search – it is enough for the teacher to ask the student to turn out his or her pockets or if the teacher can look in the student's bag or locker and for the student to agree.
- If a member of staff suspects a student has a banned item in his/her possession, they can instruct the student to turn out his or her pockets or bag and if the student refuses, the teacher can apply an appropriate punishment as set out in the school's behaviour policy. The school can also contact the Police to conduct a search if a student refused to co-operate.
- A student refusing to co-operate with such a search raises the same kind of issues as where a student refuses to stay in a detention or refuses to stop any other unacceptable behaviour when instructed by a member of staff – in such circumstances, schools can apply an appropriate disciplinary penalty.

Searching Without Consent

What the Law Says

What can be searched for:

- Knives or weapons, alcohol, illegal drugs and stolen items; and
- Tobacco, cigarette papers, e-cigarettes fireworks and pornographic images; and
- Any article that the member of staff reasonably suspects has been, or is likely to be, used to commit an offence, or to cause personal injury to, or damage to property; and
- Any item banned by the school rules which has been identified in the rules as an item which may be searched for.

Who can search?

Headteacher or a member of school staff and authorised by the Headteacher.

Under what circumstances?

The member of staff must be the same sex as the student being searched; and there must be a witness (also a staff member) and, if at all possible, they should be the same sex as the student being searched.

Please note: There is a limited exception to this rule. You can carry out a search of a student of the opposite sex to you and without a witness present, but only where you reasonably believe that there is a risk that serious harm will be caused to a person if you do not conduct the search immediately and where it is not reasonably practicable to summon another member of staff.

The requirement that the searcher is the same sex as the student and that a witness is present will continue to apply in nearly all searches. Where it is practicable to summon a staff member of the same sex as the student and a witness then the teachers wishing to conduct a search must do so.

When can a student be searched?

If there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a student is in possession of a prohibited item.

Please note: The law also says what must be done with prohibited items which are seized following a search. *(see later)

Authorising Members of Staff

The Headteacher should decide who to authorise to use these powers. There is no requirement to provide authorisation in writing.

Staff, other than security staff, can refuse to undertake a search. The law states that Headteachers may not require anyone, other than a member of the school security staff, to undertake a search.

Staff may be authorised to search for some items, but not others; for example, a member of staff could be authorised to search for stolen property, but not for weapons or knives.

Training for School Staff

When designating a member of staff to undertake searches under these powers, the Headteacher will determine if the member of staff requires any additional training to enable them to carry out their responsibilities.

Establishing Grounds for a Search

- i. Teachers can only undertake a search without consent if they have reasonable grounds for suspecting that a student may have in his or her possession a prohibited item. The teacher must decide in each particular case what constitutes reasonable grounds for suspicion. For example, they may have heard other students talking about the item or they might notice a student behaving in a way that causes them to be suspicious.
- ii. In the exceptional circumstances when it is necessary to conduct a search of a student of the opposite sex or in the absence of a witness, the member of staff conducting the search should bear in mind that a student's expectation of privacy increases as they get older.
- iii. The powers allow school staff to search regardless of whether the student is found after the search to have that item. This includes circumstances where staff suspect a student of having items such as illegal drugs or stolen property which are later found not to be illegal or stolen.

- iv. School staff can view CCTV footage in order to make a decision as to whether to conduct a search for an item.

Searches for Items Banned by the School Rules

- i. An item banned by the school rules may only be searched for under these powers if it has been identified in the school rules as an item that can be searched for.
- ii. The school rules will be determined and publicised by the Headteacher in accordance with section 89 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006.

Location of a Search

- Searches without consent can only be carried out on the school premises or, if elsewhere, where the member of staff has lawful control or charge of the student, for example on school trips in England or in training settings.
- The powers only apply in England.

During the Search

Extent of the Search – clothes, possessions, desks and lockers

- The person conducting the search may not require the student to remove any clothing other than outer clothing.
- ‘Outer clothing’ means clothing that is not worn next to the skin or immediately over a garment that is being worn as underwear but ‘outer clothing’ includes hats; shoes; boots; gloves and scarves.
- ‘Possessions’ means any goods over which the student has or appears to have control – this includes desks, lockers and bags.
- A student’s possessions can only be searched in the presence of the student and another member of staff, except where there is a risk that serious harm will be caused to a person if the search is not conducted immediately and where it is not reasonably practicable to summon another member of staff.

Please note:

The power to search without consent enables a personal search, involving removal of outer clothing and searching of pockets; but not an intimate search going further than that, which only a person with more extensive powers (e.g., a police officer) can do.

Lockers

- i. Under common law powers, the member of staff is able to search lockers and desks for any item provided the student agrees. By having a locker the student consents to have these searched for any item whether or not the student is present.
- ii. If a student does not consent to a search (or withdraws consent having signed a consent form) then it is possible to conduct a search without consent, but only for the “prohibited items” listed earlier.

Use of Force

- i. Members of staff can use such force as is reasonable given the circumstances when conducting a search for knives or weapons, alcohol, illegal drugs, stolen items, tobacco and cigarette papers, fireworks, pornographic images or articles that have been or could be used to commit an offence or cause harm. Such force cannot be used to search for items banned under the school rules.

Please read the Use of Reasonable Force to Control or Restrain Students Policy with regard to teachers' power to use force.

After the Search

The Power to Seize and Confiscate Items – General

What the Law Allows:

- Lady Lumley's School has the general power to discipline, as set out in Section 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which enables a member of staff to confiscate, retain or dispose of a student's property as a disciplinary penalty, where reasonable to do so.

Also note:

- i. A member of staff can use their discretion to confiscate, retain and/or destroy any item found as a result of a 'with consent' search so long as it is reasonable in the circumstances. Where any article is thought to be a weapon it must be passed to the police. Please note all e-cigarettes and tobacco products that are confiscated will be destroyed.
- ii. Staff have a defence to any complaint or other action brought against them. The law protects members of staff from liability in any proceedings brought against them for any loss of, or damage to, any item they have confiscated, provided they acted lawfully.

Items Found as a Result of a 'Without Consent' Search

What the Law Says

- A person carrying out a search can seize anything they have reasonable grounds for suspecting is a prohibited item (that is the items identified in this policy on page 2) or is evidence in relation to an offence.
- Where a person conducting a search finds alcohol, they may retain or dispose of it. This means that schools can dispose of alcohol as they think appropriate, but this should not include returning it to the student.
- If they find controlled drugs, these will be delivered to the police as soon as possible, but may be disposed of if the person thinks there is a good reason to do so. Lady Lumley's School encourages the gathering and sharing of intelligence with the police in their fight against drug related crime.
- If other substances are found which are not believed to be controlled drugs these can be confiscated where a teacher believes them to be harmful or detrimental to good order and discipline. This would include, for example, so called 'legal highs'.

Where staff suspect a substance may be controlled they will treat them as controlled drugs as outlined above.

- If stolen items are found, these will be delivered to the police as soon as reasonably practicable – but may be returned to the owner (or may be retained or disposed of if returning them to their owner is not practicable) if the person thinks that there is a good reason to do so.
- Where a member of staff finds tobacco or cigarette papers they may retain or dispose of them. As with alcohol, this means that schools can dispose of tobacco or cigarette papers as they think appropriate, but this should not include returning them to the student.
- Fireworks found as a result of a search may be retained or disposed of, but will not be returned to the student.
- If a member of staff finds a pornographic image, they may dispose of the image unless its possession constitutes a specified offence (i.e. it is extreme or child pornography) in which case it will be delivered to the police as soon as reasonably practicable. Images found on a mobile phone or other electronic device can be deleted unless it is necessary to pass them to the police.
- Where an article that has been (or could be) used to commit an offence or to cause personal injury or damage to property is found it may be delivered to the police or returned to the owner. It may also be retained or disposed of.
- If a member of staff finds an item which is banned under the school rules they should take into account all relevant circumstances and use their professional judgement to decide whether to return it to its owner, retain it or dispose of it.
- Any weapons or items which are evidence of an offence must be passed to the police as soon as possible.

Statutory Guidance on the Disposal of Controlled Drugs and Stolen Items

- It is up to teachers to decide whether there is a good reason not to deliver stolen items or controlled drugs to the police. In determining what is a “good reason” for not delivering controlled drugs or stolen items to the police the member of staff must have regard to the following guidance issued by the Secretary of State:

In determining what is a ‘good reason’ for not delivering controlled drugs or stolen items to the police, the member of staff should take into account all relevant circumstances and use their professional judgement to determine whether they can safely dispose of a seized article.

- Where staff are unsure as to the legal status of a substance and have reason to believe it may be a controlled drug they should treat it as such.
- With regard to stolen items, it would not be reasonable or desirable to involve the police in dealing with low value items such as pencil cases. However, staff may judge it appropriate to contact the police if the items are valuable (iPods/laptops) or illegal (alcohol/fireworks).

Statutory Guidance for Dealing with Electronic Devices

- Where the member of staff conducting the search finds an electronic device they may examine any data or files on the device if they think there is a good reason to do so. Following an examination, if the person has decided to return the device to the owner, or to retain or dispose of it, they may erase any data or files, if they think there is a good reason to do so.
- The member of staff must have regard to the following guidance issued by the Secretary of State when determining what is a “good reason” for examining or erasing the contents of an electronic device:

In determining a ‘good reason’ to examine or erase the data or files the staff member must reasonably suspect that the data or file on the device in question has been, or could be, used to cause harm, to disrupt teaching or break the school rules.

- If inappropriate material is found on the device it is up to the member of staff to decide whether they should delete that material, retain it as evidence (of a criminal offence or a breach of school discipline) or whether the material is of such seriousness that it requires the involvement of the police.

Telling Parents/Carers/Guardians and Dealing with Complaints

- The school is not required to inform parents before a search takes place or to seek their consent to search their child.
- There is no legal requirement to make or keep a record of a search, however, Lady Lumley’s School will always record the search and aim to contact parents, carers or guardians within 24 hours of the search.
- Schools should inform the individual student’s parents, carers or guardians where alcohol, illegal drugs or potentially harmful substances are found, though there is no legal requirement to do so.
- Complaints about screening or searching should be dealt with through the normal school complaints procedure.

Appendix H

Power to use reasonable force (DfE Use of reasonable force advice)

Members of staff have the power to use reasonable force to prevent pupils committing an offence, injuring themselves or others, or damaging property, and to maintain good order and discipline in the classroom.

What is reasonable force?

1. The term 'reasonable force' covers the broad range of actions used by most teachers at some point in their career that involve a degree of physical contact with pupils.
2. Force is usually used either to control or restrain. This can range from guiding a pupil to safety by the arm through to more extreme circumstances such as breaking up a fight or where a student needs to be restrained to prevent violence or injury.
3. 'Reasonable in the circumstances' means using no more force than is needed.
4. As mentioned above, schools generally use force to control pupils and to restrain them. Control means either passive physical contact, such as standing between pupils or blocking a pupil's path, or active physical contact such as leading a pupil by the arm out of a classroom.
5. Restraint means to hold back physically or to bring a pupil under control. It is typically used in more extreme circumstances, for example when two pupils are fighting and refuse to separate without physical intervention.
6. School staff should always try to avoid acting in a way that might cause injury, but in extreme cases it may not always be possible to avoid injuring the pupil.

Who can use reasonable force?

- All members of school staff have a legal power to use reasonable force.
- This power applies to any member of staff at the school. It can also apply to people whom the headteacher has temporarily put in charge of pupils such as unpaid volunteers or parents accompanying students on a school organised visit.

When can reasonable force be used?

- Reasonable force can be used to prevent pupils from hurting themselves or others, from damaging property, or from causing disorder.
- In a school, force is used for two main purposes – to control pupils or to restrain them.
- The decision on whether or not to physically intervene is down to the professional judgement of the staff member concerned and should always depend on the individual circumstances.

Students should take any notes to be shown to their pastoral office at the start of the day on day of the detention.

Teachers will be unable to respond to emails or phone calls regarding detentions as they will be teaching up until 3.00 pm and often run after school sessions up until 4.00 pm. Detentions cannot be changed after this point.

The detention will then be completed by the child on the next available lunchtime in the Hall.

Failing the above detentions may result in a day in the Reflection Room at SLT discretion or an upscale to a lunch detention.
